

Specially for my HOW friends

You guys are part of a special group of people whom I've come to rely on for every boat question nagging me. And you always come up with great ideas! Some of you I've been lucky enough to meet, others are internet boating friends. Doesn't matter: you have all become important to me and I just thought Christmas is a real good time to say thanks for being part of my life!

Merry Christmas & Happy New Year!
