

We are well into the Christmas and New Year Holiday Seasons !

Time flies said our parents ! The older I get the faster it seems to go I Looks to me like 2019 just got started and we are already pulling the last tacks towards the year end mark !

When I am sailing Sacripant, sea buoys help avoid various dangers and bring me safely to destination. My life's own personal buoys are my family and the great friends who year after year help me navigate through life in the best possible way, providing support and help whenever needed !

So with this short message I not only want to wish you and yours a Very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, but I also want to Thank You my #OW sailors friends one more time for being the beacons that you've become in my sailing life !!!

Merry Christmas

Happy New Year
